WAITING FOR HAPPINESS IS LIKE WAITING FOR THE CHIMNEY ON YOUR ROOF TO GROW

(Do You Eat Bananas Or Slip On Them? Are You Waiting To Fly To The Moon Or Heaven? Are You Wearing A Child's Plastic Size 3 Shoe On One Foot And Size 13 Wellington Boot On The Other? Can You Walk Straight Or Are You Having Difficulty And Walking Round In Circles? Is Yours A Florescent Regret? Hope You Are Not Waiting For Your Chimney To Develop Wings And Takeoff To Heaven. Can Your Chimney Point To God Or Only to The Stars And the Moon?)

– B.K. David. Paignton. England

Only those with immense wisdom will walk down this mountain, as they'll be wearing the mountain boots of wisdom and holding in each hand the sticks of 'care and attention. These few wise souls will arrive at the base of the mountain in one piece and with a smile. Many will be at the foot of this mountain in a state with many broken bones, head complaints and needing either heart resuscitation, brain surgery or an Undertaker. The wise will realize the problem at hand, will recognize their good fortune, count their blessings and quickly set about helping those less fortunate. At such a time (like today), would it be wise to be bothered about your hair or cleaning your dirty car or ironing a shirt? When the world is crying out in such distress as it is today, what should you be concerned about and doing? Vacuuming? Buying a new shawl or pair of shoes? Weeding your garden and cutting the lawn? Your bank account? Having a haircut? Think about it: the world is in such a big mess and some are more concerned about the fact that their hair or garden looks a mess or just needs cutting. I'd sooner have a dirty car and clean mind, than dirty mind and a clean car.

It requires far more luck and care than what people possess to avoid the many sharp rocks of bad karma on this mountain that stand proud above the snow; and all need to be avoided if you are to survive the climb down and reach base camp safely. Many are now not climbing but falling down this perilous mountain out of control, wondering what is happening and how to stop the self as they have truly had enough hurt and pain on this journey down.

If You Are Remembering
Your Food And Hunger,
And Not The Pilots, You
Will Not Be Seen And Rescued.

It is only by remembering God that He can rescue anyone in His helicopter of spirituality and righteousness. The two pilots in God's helicopter are experienced experts in rescuing souls. The prerequisite to being rescued is that you need to send up the blazing flare that can only be lit by having constant remembrance of the main pilot. Only this alone will capture both pilots' attention, gain their assistance and effort necessary for them to lower down their ladder to rescue you.

This helicopter can only rescue those who have enough spiritual strength, love and wisdom to grab the ladder and stamina to keep hold of it. Plus, in order to be rescued, you need endless dedication and a powerful desire to meet God and to live a spiritual life; and to be one who truly repents his old ways and can wear the fluorescent jacket of repentance and put his hand up and say they were wrong. It is time to repent our sins or stay lost in today's turbulent ocean of vice.

Avalanche

This world is caught up in the avalanche of sorrow and suffering. Everyone is sliding down in this avalanche of wrong doings. They are being tossed, turned upside down, cut, broken, buried alive and being hurled to a very uncertain ending. Hardly anyone will survive and only a few souls at the bottom shall be rescued by the emergency team of 'Bapdada Wing' when they lower down the ladder of remembrance in response to the distress calls received saying "They regret their past and want to change, and have changed". It will only be the sincere last minute calls that will be heard and answered. Only those who really repent and sincerely regret their past with a true heart will be given the chance to climb free from certain death that awaits all those out of control and caught up in all the sorrow below.

God's rescue helicopter at this time shall be limited as it does not have unlimited room and there will be only a few empty seats available by that time. Virtually every seat onboard will already be occupied so the last few that He picks up will be very lucky. Those already sitting onboard will have completely changed their ways and be living regret free. Those left below will have to carry on choking on man's 'airborne pollution' (vice) whilst the rescued up above will breathe in God's airborne 'solution of purity'. The difference is that of drinking deadly snake venom and mango juice; of being walked upon by an ant (tickled) or elephant.

You Shall Have A Long Wait If You Are Waiting For Your Chimney To Start Its Launch Sequence To Take off To Heaven.

If you think happiness is just going to appear from nowhere – transform your life from darkness to light; from total misery to total happiness; from despair to achievement and from ignorance to enlightenment whilst you are at home asleep in front of the fire, think again. There is as much chance of your getting happiness without effort as there is of your chimney sprouting wings today and taking off to the moon. Yet it's more likely for that flight to happen than the world's people to find true and lasting happiness today or in the future. They can sit on the sofa, in a rocket, in a cave, on a train, in a court, in Presidential, Prime Ministerial or Holy man's waiting room and will on leaving, feel deep down in their hearts, still empty having achieved almost nothing.

The void left by the lack of truth in one's life can only ever be filled and satisfied with truth and no matter how much rubbish you try and throw in it, it will always remain and feel empty. People really desire a lasting truth and happiness yet no matter where they go and what they do, if there is no truth in either, only receive a cream cake (sweet talk) which is satisfying for only a minute. No matter how plush the office and its door, how high the position and important the person, it can be difficult to find truth behind any of them. If you want truth, then only by knocking on God's door will you find it. You can knock a million doors (falsehood) and only ever walk in to darkness every time. There has ever been light and truth behind one door in all history and that door belongs to God and until recently, was invisible. This door has always been very illusive and impossible to open by man as you need to press the doorbell, which is also invisible as it's in the shape of an invisible third eye, in order to get God's attention to open it.

Are You In Control Walking Down The Mountain Or Falling Down
It? Do You Know How To Call Up God Without Using Your Mobile?

The world is nearing the bottom of this mountain of 'Bad Karma' and for those who've escaped the rocks and being buried alive, reaching the bottom will still only spell certain death. Their lives have clearly written their ending in the snow on the way down; which caused the avalanche in the first place. Too many bad deeds written by too many people caused the avalanche to start and to make those responsible eat their words (suffering) on the way down. Keep placing your groceries (heavy, bad thoughts) on a table and eventually the table will break. You may not think one item (thought) is that heavy or bad, yet when you put them all together from one day's shop in the same basket (your mind) and unpack them on the table of life they spell D I S A S T E R.

The world is in a win-win situation. If you believe in God and what He says, then you can sit back and smile and wait and feel content. If you believe in man and his monkey ideas or your own dictates, you will also probably sit down occasionally, feel content and smile (especially at those trusting and believing in God). Only one lot and their ideas, beliefs and understanding are going to be right at the end and left standing – with a smile.

Life: It's Just Not Like Cricket Anymore.

Whatever you choose to follow in life, be that God or man, the monkey, yourself or fashion, is as important a decision to you as you deciding to breathe in and out all day today. It's God or man, which equates to either breathing or not breathing. It is time for you to declare whose side you are on before the final whistle blows. The wise see that only God has a whistle and that man only carries round a rattle. It's because of man constantly rattling (sorrowful complaining) that God has to come to blow the final whistle. For whose team are you going to step out for on the field and bat? Or like most of the people, are you only going to sit and watch the game with a beer in your hand and cheer on just your own self and family?

What Will You Put In Your Pocket (Mind) Today?
Pebbles or God? Heaviness or Lightness? Truth or Falsehood? The Future or
The Past? Happiness or Sorrow? Tears or Laughter? Hope or Despair? Money or Good Wishes?

There really is nothing in between: you either choose man or God. There are two choices: spirituality and developing peace, or going to the moon to collect rocks and digging up the earth in search of bones and broken pots.

Ape or God? Vote Today.

Many persons favour the notion of the dinosaur, Darwinism and his relations, the ape, over God. It really is a question as to whom you think you are related? Is your distant father an ape or God? Who are you going to vote for? God and heaven? Man, rockets, history and science books and test tubes? Do you want to vote for the monkey swinging through the trees stopping only to eat? At least monkeys have the sense to be almost vegetarian and eat many bananas – and not slip on them. (Concluded)
