

A Tribute To

B.K. SISTER DR. VINAY LAXMI

“What a wonderful world”!

We all Baba’s children around the world and double-foreigners, would like to share this poem and song as a tribute to our very dear respected B.K. Sister Dr. Vinay Laxmi, who left her mortal coil in Madhuban on the 9th of March 2013.

As a universal angel to us and all, Sister Vinay was one of the warmest persons we have ever met — despite her full time work in Global Hospital and the villages around Mount Abu.

With a kind heart, she served the world at Madhuban as well as foreign countries, as an all-rounder. Her dedication and humility were remarkable. As a humble instrument of God, she served with constant love, enthusiasm, generosity, determination, compassion and joy.

Sister Vinay Laxmi will remain in our hearts as an example and sample, Baba’s messenger of Love and Dignity.

“I see trees of green, red roses too..

I see them bloom for me and you,

And I think to myself, “What a wonderful world.”

I see skies of blue and clouds of white,

Bright blessed days, dark sacred nights,

And I think to myself “What a wonderful world.”

The colours of the rainbow so pretty in the sky,

Are also on the faces of people going by,

I see friends shaking hands, saying “How do you do”,

They’re really saying “I love you”.

I hear babies crying, I watch them grow,

They’ll learn much more than I’ll ever know.

And I think to myself, what a wonderful world,

Yes, I think to myself, “What a wonderful world” !
