

Let the love of the heart be for the one Beloved and Maya will never disturb you. (22/07/2024)

Beloved Avyakt BapDada's deeply loving instrument teachers, brothers and sisters of this land and abroad who are the decoration of the Brahmin clan, ones who have a loving intellect and remain lost in the love of One and who are the true beloved brides, the victorious souls who constantly follow shrimat in their every thought, word and action, please accept love-filled sweet remembrance.

The month of August is the month to remind us of our truly sweet and deeply loving, beloved Dadi Prakashmani, who was always lost in love for the Supreme. Just see how she had a very loving intellect, always had one strength and one support, was fearless and an embodiment of power, made the impossible possible and became a number one victorious bead of the rosary of victory. The month of the memorial of such a sweet Dadi also brings with it the pure festivals of Raksha Bandhan and Janamasthmi. Sweet BapDada has tied a rakhi of such a promise that not only do we become the victorious conquerors of Maya but, with the power of our yoga, we also make the whole world, including the elements, pure. This sweet bondage of rakhi makes us free from bondage and liberated in life and this is why, immediately after Raksha Bandhan, the festival of Janamasthmi, the birthday of Shri Krishna, the Lord of Vaikunth is celebrated with a lot of splendour. Both of these festivals give the pure message of "Be pure and be yogi". Many, many greetings to all of you for such pure festivals.

Baba says: Children, this confluence age is the age of happiness, because at this time we bid farewell to the land of sorrow for half a cycle. When the soul connects itself with its Father, the Supreme Soul, the bugles of happiness begin to blow. This dance of happiness is a natural dance, which continues while we walk and move around and do everything. It is now time to be victorious and to make others victorious and this is why we mustn't think or speak too much about weaknesses. When the Almighty Authority Father Himself is with you, then you have almost reached your destination. In any case, when someone is weak but his companion is strong, they are easily able to reach their destination. So, when any situation arises, then experience yourself not as being alone, but that you have Baba with a thousand arms with you. Where the Father is with you, then, no matter how many storms come, they will become a gift. An intellect with faith is victorious – remember this title and be victorious. Do not be defeated even in your thoughts. Tell me, having this experience, you are continuing to fly with zeal and enthusiasm at every moment, are you not? This zeal and enthusiasm finishes all types of obstacles. A pure and determined thought full of enthusiasm becomes a powerful weapon for you to be victorious.

Now, Baba says: Children, stay beyond all limitations, in your unlimited form, as an unlimited server. Just "Mine is one Baba and none other" – merge all other forms of "mine" in this unlimited mine and you will be victorious.

Achcha, keeping a balance of remembrance and service, all of you must be experiencing the pleasures of the confluence age. In Baba's home, very beautiful yoga tapasya is taking place everywhere. Please accept love-filled remembrance.

In Godly service,

BK Ratanmohini

Avyakt Signals – August 2024

Have a loving intellect in order to become a victorious jewel.

1. People with a loving intellect means those who belong to God and who always stay in the alokik and avyakt stage, whose every thought and every task is alokik. Ones who while living in the physical world and carrying out activities, remain detached like a lotus and always loving to the one Father. This is what it means to have a loving intellect.
2. A loving intellect is victorious. Your slogan is also: Those who have a loving intellect at the time of destruction are victorious and those who have a divorced intellect at the time of destruction are led to destruction. When you relate this slogan to others “Do not have a divorced intellect at the time of destruction, but have a loving intellect”, then look at yourself too – do I have a loving intellect all the time? Do I ever have a divorced intellect?
3. Those who have a loving intellect cannot have a single thought that is against shrimat. If your thoughts, words or actions are against shrimat, that is not said to be having a loving intellect. So check: Is my every thought and word according to shrimat? Those who move along according to shrimat are always victorious.
4. A loving intellect means that the love of the intellect is always connected with the one Beloved. When you always have love for One, then you cannot forge your love with anyone else or any possessions because a loving intellect means to constantly experience BapDada to be personally in front of you. Those who are always in front of BapDada can never turn away from Him.
5. The words that emerge from the lips and hearts of those who have a loving intellect are: I eat with You, I sit with You, I talk to You, I listen to You, I fulfil all my relationships with You and I receive all attainments from you. Their eyes and lips speak without speaking. So check: Have I become one with a loving intellect at the time of destruction in this way? That is, do I have a stable and constant stage in the love of One?
6. When you look at the sun, you definitely feel the rays of the sun. In the same way, when you personally stay in front of the Father, the Sun of Knowledge, that is, when you have a truly loving intellect, you will experience the rays of all virtues of the Sun of Knowledge in yourself. The sparkle of introversion along with the sparkle of the self-respect of the future is always visible on the faces of children who have a loving intellect.
7. If you always have the awareness that this body can be destroyed at any time, by having this time of destruction in your awareness, your intellect will automatically be loving. When the time of destruction comes, then even those who don't have knowledge definitely try to remember the Father, but because they don't have His introduction, they are not able to connect their love. If you always have the awareness that these are the final moments, by remembering this, you will not remember anyone else.
8. Those who always have a loving intellect cannot have any waste or sinful thoughts that oppose shrimat in their minds. Those who have such loving intellects become victorious jewels. Do not have love for bodily beings in any way, otherwise, you will come in the list of those who have a divorced intellect.
9. Children who have a loving intellect and always fulfil the responsibility of love attain for all time all the happiness of the world. Day and night, BapDada sings praise of children who fulfil the responsibility of love. Sitting everyone else in the land of liberation, He gives the fortune of the kingdom of the world to those who fulfil the responsibility of love.
10. Have true love of the heart for the one Father and Maya will never disturb you. She will be destroyed. However, if you don't have true love of the heart, if you are simply holding onto the Father's hand and not taking His company, you will continue to be hurt by Maya.
11. Since you have died alive, taken a new birth and adopted new sanskars, why do you have love for the costume of old sanskars? Why should children love the things that the Father doesn't love? So, have a loving intellect, finish for all time the old accounts of weaknesses, defects, lack of power and sensitivity and become victorious. Do not put aside the costume decorated with jewels and have love for the costume that is decayed.

12. Some children forge their love but fulfil it numberwise. Their line changes in terms of fulfilling their responsibility. They have one aim and their qualifications to fulfil that aim are different. If there is a lack in fulfilling even one relationship, then you cannot come in the list of those who fulfil their responsibility. To fulfil a responsibility means to fulfil it. No matter what the situation may be of the mind, body, connections, do not remember any soul in your thoughts; remember only the Father first in any situation, then you will be said to be victorious with a loving intellect.
13. Always have the awareness that you are the victorious ones of every kalpa. You have played this part many times and are now simply repeating it. With this awareness, all your thoughts of “What can I? How can I do this?” of complaints will finish and you will become complete. When you have the power of the awareness of your double light form, any impossible task will become possible.
14. Some children say: “Baba, cut off Maya’s hands”, but if Baba were to cut off Maya’s hands, then those who cut them will receive the benefit. The Father can do everything. It is an order of a second, but how will your future be created? This is why, just as little children in Nepal are given a knife in their hands, they (the adults) themselves use the knife, but in the hands of little children. In the same way, the Father also says to the children: Children, simply keep the hand of courage, and with the Father’s help, you will become a victorious conqueror of Maya.
15. When someone has another person’s hand over him, he is fearless and powerful and becomes ready to carry out any difficult task. In the same way, always experience on yourself the hand of shrimat and you will never be afraid of any difficult situation or any obstacle of Maya. With the help and courage of the hand, you will experience it to be easy to face anything. In the pictures too, they have shown God’s hand on the forehead of devotees. You children have the hand of shrimat on your forehead, that is, on your intellect, so when you have His hand and company, you will always remain victorious.
16. I am the victorious one of the previous cycle – make yourself courageous with this awareness. We are the master almighty children of the Almighty Authority Father – you will develop courage with this awareness. If you have weak thoughts in your mind, then finish them there and then and become powerful.
17. In order to be constantly victorious, stay under the canopy of remembrance. Those who always stay under the canopy remain safe from all types of obstacles of Maya. No type of shadow of Maya can fall on them in any way. The five vices, instead of being your enemy, become your servants and servers. In the picture of Vishnu, they have shown the snake as the bed and the snake as a canopy – this is a sign of being victorious.
18. When any scene comes in front of you, in terms of the drama, it is a game. If you have this awareness then you will be stable and victorious and not come into upheaval. Since you belong to the Father, victory is your birthright. This is why the memorial of the rosary of victory is remembered and worshipped.
19. To tie the true rakhi of purity means to be victorious over the five vices, even in your thoughts. Waste thoughts give birth to anger and lust, that is any type of wasteful vision on any soul, would not be said to be purity. So, surrender all waste thoughts out of love for the Father and you will become a bead of the rosary of victory.
20. Constantly continue to experience the Father’s company and you will remain victorious because souls who have the experience of His company remain merged in His love. Such souls are not influenced by anyone. Powerful souls who constantly stay in the company of the Almighty Father challenge Maya and attain victory. It is not a big thing for Maya to come, but when she doesn’t show her form, that is called being victorious.
21. Always have the awareness that we are the master almighty children of the Almighty Authority Father. All the powers are our weapons, our ornaments. A soul who has all its ornaments and weapons will always be powerful and victorious and will never fluctuate in any situation. Become a mahavir with the awareness of always belonging to the one Father and none other and you will remain victorious. The imperishable tilak of victory will be sparkling on your forehead.
22. Keep all your specialities in front of you and you will have faith in yourself. Do not think about your weaknesses too much, and you will continue to happily move forward. Since the Father is the Almighty

Authority, those who hold His hand will definitely reach their destination. Even if you yourself are weak, when your Companion is strong, then you will definitely go across. Be victorious with this awareness and also make others the same.

23. When any situation comes, make the Father your Companion and you will not experience yourself to be alone, that you have a special power with you. Where the Father is present, no matter how many storms come, they will become a gift. An intellect with faith is victorious – become victorious with the awareness of this title.
24. Let there be zeal and enthusiasm at every moment and this is the basis for the flying stage. This enthusiasm will finish many types of obstacles that are to come and give you a lot of help to become complete. This pure and determined thought of enthusiasm becomes a special and powerful weapon to make you victorious. Therefore, always keep in your heart this zeal and enthusiasm and this means of the flying stage. Have the enthusiasm: I have to become like the Father and be full with the treasures of all powers, all virtues and all knowledge!
25. Be determined with the thought you have had and the flag of victory will be hoisted. Everything becomes easy with determined thoughts and therefore, never have any weak thoughts. Have the determined thought: I will always move forward and be victorious. Stay beyond all limits in your unlimited form, as an unlimited server. Mine is one Baba and none other – merge all other forms of “mine” in this unlimited “Mine” and you will be victorious.
26. The confluence age is the age of happiness. At this time, all obstacles are bidden farewell for half the cycle and so, always remember that you are a victorious jewel of every cycle. Let the drums of victory continue to beat in your heart. Just as the bugles of victory are blown, in the same way, make a connection with the Father through remembrance and let these bugles constantly be playing. Let the dance of happiness continue within.
27. In order to be constantly victorious, practice being stable in the stage of a detached observer. Be a detached observer and enable your body to perform actions. This stage of a detached observer gives you the experience of easy effort because there cannot be any type of obstacle or difficulty in the stage of a detached observer. At the end, when there will be upheaval everywhere, at that time, you will be victorious only with the stage of a detached observer.
28. Maya has no power now. Maya is already dead, and has only a little breath left. Now, on this last breath, you simply have to be victorious for namesake. While being in any situation, be content in the upheaval of the atmosphere and vibrations and you will claim the right to be an embodiment of contentment, an elevated and victorious soul. The virtue of contentment will make you free from thoughts, constant and stable and give you a right to the seat of victory.
29. Always maintain zeal and enthusiasm for victory. Do not have any sanskars of disheartenment. Experience any difficult task to be so easy that it is not a big deal because you have done it many times. You are not doing anything new. You are simply repeating what you have done many times – this awareness will make you victorious.
30. When you see anyone’s nature or sanskars, do not have the thought: I don’t know whether this one will change or not. Transform the disheartenment into hope for all time. When your faith is unbroken, your victory is constant. When you have “why?” or “what?” in your faith, then there will be something lacking in your victory, that is, in your attainment. So, always have hope, always be victorious and make others victorious.
31. Constantly stay under the Father’s canopy of protection and you will remain safe from Maya and always in pleasure. This study is very high and, though it is a high study, you have the faith that you are definitely victorious, you have already passed. It is the study of cycle after cycle, it is not anything new and so, always stay in pleasure and continue to give others the message to stay in pleasure. Be a great donor with your mind and continue to donate powers and you will be victorious over the thoughts in your mind in a second.
