In order to become an embodiment of success, do service of the self and of everyone with the combined form.

(Letter of remembrance – 20/10/2024)

Beloved Avyakt Image, Mother, Father, BapDada's deeply loving instrument teachers, brothers and sisters of this land and abroad, who are the decoration of the Brahmin clan, ones who are to become embodiments of success by always keeping a balance between remembrance and service and ones who are humble instruments engaged in the service of world renewal, please accept love-filled sweet remembrance.

All of us sing praise of our Beloved BapDada, and always having zeal and enthusiasm, are engaged in the service of self-progress. From the subtle region, sweet Baba makes His children instruments do many types of service and enables them to move forward. Now, in the Global Summit, so many well-known souls from this land and abroad came to Baba's home and praised all the service of the University and also all the servers, and went away taking at least a drop of knowledge. This was also a beautiful scene of God's revelation that all of us witnessed. We also saw how at every step, with BapDada's company and His co-operation, we experienced success in every task. Now, BapDada's season of avyakt meetings has also begun. Thousands of Baba's children from this land and abroad continue to come to Madhuban according to their turn.

In order for us to become embodiments of success, sweet Baba has made all of us renunciates and tapaswi souls. Our tapasya is to belong to the one Father and none other, and our renunciation is to mould ourselves in every situation and make our stage elevated. In service, we sometimes have to be detached and at other times we have to be loving, and therefore we have to pay special attention and do service with a lot of love. However, it is not right to do service while trapped in love. For this, sweet Baba has given all of us a yardstick for our checking: Whatever task you carry out, check whether it is a task given to you by Baba. If Baba has not given it, I must not do it. While carrying out any task, be a double light angel and a trustee. The One who inspires everyone is making me do it – you will remain light with this awareness. No matter how many obstructions come, with one strength and one support, you will continue to receive success. When you have the company of the Almighty Authority Father, trivial things finish as though they never existed. The impossible becomes possible because you have become children of the Almighty. Everything will become as easy as pulling a hair out of butter.

Speak, this is your experience in the field of service, is it not? Now, on the one hand, the speed of service is increasing and on the other hand, Baba's maharathi children are joining the advance party for service. This is also God's planning and therefore, while seeing every scene, see it as nothing new and do not have any kind of upheaval. In order to make yourself complete and perfect, do the tapasya of being bodiless. Now, even the elements are waiting to welcome master creator souls, who are going to become complete and perfect. So now, finish their waiting and become blessed with the blessing of always being victorious.

Achcha. I am sure everyone's health must be fine. Now, everyone must be waiting for their turn to come here. Children are always welcome in Baba's unlimited home. Achcha.

Lots of love and remembrance.

In Godly service.

Avyakt signals – November 2024

Become an embodiment of success

- 1) In any field of service, in order to become an embodiment of success, imbibe the virtue of tolerance. Just as a patient person carefully considers everything before he carries out a task and so definitely achieves success, similarly, one who is tolerant is able to cool down those with strong sanskars with their power of tolerance and makes that one co-operative.
- 2) In order to be successful in a gathering and to pass in the final paper, you need to have the power to tolerate, because in the final period, even if you have wealth, you will not be able to attain anything. In order to pass the examinations in those times, you need to have the power to tolerate. No matter how scary the times may be, if you have accumulated a stock of powers, those powers will make the elements your servants, that is, you will automatically continue to receive all facilities.
- 3) The consciousness of being an instrument is the basis of success in service. You automatically develop the three specialities of being incorporeal, viceless and egoless with the consciousness of being an instrument. If there isn't the consciousness of being an instrument, then the many types of "I" and "mine" make you slack in service. Therefore, do not have any consciousness of "I" or "mine". On the one hand, be an extremely humble world servant and on the hand be an authority of knowledge. Where there is the consciousness of being an instrument, of being humble and being unlimited, there is success.
- 4) The special means of success in service at the present time is to create an atmosphere through your attitude. Nowadays, souls find it difficult to move ahead with their own effort and therefore make the atmosphere so powerful with your vibrations, so that souls are automatically attracted to come. Now, do the service of transforming everyone's intellects by giving them sakaash in service and success will automatically bow down in front of you.
- 5) Humility is the means of success in service. To bow down with humility is not to make yourself small, but to become full with the fruit of success. Whatever your intellect decides, let it be according to shrimat. Do not let anything apart from shrimat enter your intellect. Let there always be the awareness of Baba in your intellect and the judgement you make will automatically be true and full of success.
- 6) In service, you sometimes have to be detached and at other times, loving. Pay special attention to this. If you do not serve with love, that is not right and even if you do service while trapped in love, that is not right either. So, do service with love, but do it while being stable in a stage of detachment and only then will there be success. If you find you have less success than the effort you put in, then definitely something is lacking in having the balance of being loving and detached.
- 7) In order for servers to be constant embodiments of success, they have to be equal to the Father. Simply remember just one word – follow the Father. Whatever actions you perform, check whether it is the Father's task. "If it is the Father's task, then it is also mine; if it is not the Father's task, then it is not mine either." Always keep this yardstick for checking with you, then just as the Father is always an embodiment of success, in the same way, you will also always be an embodiment of success.
- 8) The basis of success in service is renunciation and tapasya. To belong to the one Father and none other is the tapasya of every moment. And to be able to mould yourself according to the time, situation and person is to remain constantly easy in benefitting the self and others. To create your elevated stage according to the circumstances and the time, that is, to be able to mould yourself, is known as renunciation. You receive success through this renunciation and tapasya.
- 9) Whilst performing any task, remain a double-light angel and a trustee and you will continue to receive success. When your heart is clean and honest, your desires are fulfilled. The One who is inspiring is making you do it, and if I am doing it, then I will receive the fruit of service according to the power of the soul. When the Father is making me do it, then the Father is the Almighty Authority. One elevated thought or action enables you to receive a thousand-fold fruit from the Father.
- 10) The one thought of all Brahmins is the basis of the success of the task. In any task, everyone's co-operation is needed. If even one brick of a fortress is weak, it can shake the whole fort, and therefore, all young and old are the bricks of this fortress of the Brahmin family. So, all of you have to make the task successful with just the one thought. Let only the one sound emerge in everyone's mind, "This is my responsibility", and there will be success.

- 11) No matter how many obstructions come, you have been receiving success on the basis of "One Strength and One Support" and you will continue to receive it. When you have the company of the Almighty Authority Father, all those trivial things end in such a way that it is as though they never existed. Even the impossible becomes possible because you have become the children of the Almighty Authority. All things are proved to be like pulling hair out of butter.
- 12) Attract others with good wishes in your mind, with your elevated words filled with good wishes that enable them to forge a relationship with the Father, and with your form of love and peace whilst coming into connection and relationship with others. For this, inculcate the elevated consciousness in your awareness, words and actions and let your intellect remain plain. Let there be no stain of the old sanskars, and only then will your plans and practical form become one and success will fly like an aeroplane.
- 13) Where there is unity, there is easy success. However, let there not be unity in making someone fall. Always have the aim of going into the flying stage while taking everyone with you. Always remain obedient and faithful and follow the Father in every action. Let the Father's virtues be the virtues of you children, let the Father's task be the task of you children and the Father's sanskars be the sanskars of you children. This is the means of becoming an embodiment of success.
- 14) Move along whilst considering yourself to be an instrument and you will always be light and an embodiment of success. Sometimes there is little service and at other times, there is more service, but it should not feel like a burden. "What will happen? How will it happen?" The One who is inspiring you to do something is making it happen. A server means one who is an instrument and carries out the renewal. If there isn't humility, if there is the desire for respect, that is a burden, and someone with a burden cannot go fast. Therefore, always remain light and become an embodiment of success.
- 15) In today's world, people run around on roller skates and they are so light, while their speed is so fast. Similarly, when the Father is making you move, by having the wheels of shrimat, the speed of your effort will automatically become fast and you will continue to receive success. When you take any steps in service, always keep three things in your awareness: 1) eknami (Let the name of One be glorified) 2) ek mat (one direction) 3) Economy.
- 16) For success, always keep the spiritual lucky charm with you: "To give regard is to receive regard." This record of giving regard will become an imperishable record of success. Let there always be the one mantra of success on your lips, "You first!" Accurately end the consciousness of "Me first" and consider that making others move forward is actually moving ahead yourself, and you will continue to receive success
- 17) The slogan "We are all one" is the means of success. "Unity and concentration" are the elevated arms for success in any task. Concentration means always to have thoughts that are free from any waste, free from any sin. Where there is unity and concentration, success is the garland around the neck. Those who stay in a stage that is free from any waste and any sin are able to give visions of the form of Brahmins who are to become angels.
- 18) You will become a star of success when you do not have any ego about your own success and you do not speak about it. Do not blow your own trumpet, but to the extent that you are successful, be just as humble-hearted, humble and have a pure nature. Others may sing your praise, but you always sing the Father's praise. Such humility will easily enable you to carry out the task of renewal. Until and unless you become humble, you will not be able to carry out the task of renewal.
- 19) The co-operation of good wishes and pure feelings in everyone's minds enables you to achieve success in any task. This fortress of good wishes and pure feelings transforms souls. The fortress of the atmosphere is created by everyone's co-operation. Let the thread of God's love be one (united), then even if there are thoughts of diversity, there would be the feeling of being co-operative.
- 20) At the moment, you are using your body, mind, wealth and time, but by using the powers of your mind for service, you will receive a lot of success in a very short time. At present, you sometimes have to work hard on yourself. The effort you have to make to transform your nature, of moving along in a gathering, or of becoming disheartened when you don't see so much success in service – all of this will finish.

- 21) Success is impossible without combined service. Let it not be that you go to do service and when you come back, you say that Maya came to you, your mood was put off, or you were disturbed – underline this. The means for success in service and expansion in service is the combined service of the self and everyone else. Make sure that no service makes your stage fluctuate.
- 22) Those who have the Almighty Authority Father combined with them, all the powers are automatically with them. When you have all the powers, it is impossible that you do not have success. When you find a good companion even in the lokik world, you cannot leave him. This One, however, is an imperishable Companion. He is not a Companion who will ever deceive you. He is a Companion who will always fulfil His responsibility. So, always keep the Companion with you and become an embodiment of success.
- 23) Become master creators, complete and perfect and the elements will welcome you. They are waiting to welcome you with garlands of success. For this, simply have the awareness that victory is your birthright. Do not have this thought even in your dreams: “I don’t know whether I will be victorious or not!” The words “I don’t know whether...” can never emerge through the lips of someone who is master knowledge-full.
- 24) When you keep the account of your actions and thoughts clear, then you will become complete and an embodiment of success. If you are not able to clear your own accounts, how will you settle the accounts or karmic bondages of others? Therefore, whatever has happened throughout the day, finish that with the powers of knowledge and remembrance, with will power and controlling power, and keep your register clean every day.
- 25) The fluctuation of your stage makes something clear very unclear. Because of problems, you are not able to be bright and therefore, it is only when your stage doesn’t fluctuate that you can have a clear awareness. The more you take care of yourself, the clearer you will continue to become and the success of service will be seen to be that much clearer and closer.
- 26) In the field of world benefit, the easy method of success is the revelation of the Father through your practical proof. Whatever you speak, that should be seen. You say that you Brahmins are world almighty authorities, master almighty authorities, conquerors of Maya, merciful, spiritual servers... So, let whatever you say be visible in your practical form. Let the sweetness of honey always be with you and there will definitely be success in every action.
- 27) Always have the rakhi of a detached observer tied and there will very quickly be success in service. A task that takes a month now will not take even one hour. So, just as you tie a rakhi of purity on others, in the same way, tie a rakhi of being a detached observer on yourself. To the extent that you remain a detached observer, to that extent you will be an image that grants visions (sakshatkarmurat) and be that image in a practical form (sakshat murat).
- 28) In the beginning, people had visions of BapDada while sitting at home. In the same way now, while sitting at a distance, your powerful attitude will now act as though you catch hold of someone and bring them here. Now, continue to spread a pure atmosphere with your attitude. Pay attention to yourself at every second and become free from waste thoughts, free from obstacles and be an image that attracts, then it doesn’t matter how much of an atheist and tamoguni someone is, he will appear to be transformed. However, this service will be successful when your attitude and what you say are clear.
- 29) The main basis for the ascending stage in service and in the self is unbroken love for the Father. Let nothing else except the Father be visible to you. Let Baba be in your thoughts, Baba in your words and Baba in your actions. When you speak even one word while being in the stage of being absorbed in love, those loving words will tie other souls with love. Just the one word “Baba” spoken by souls absorbed in love will work like magic.
- 30) The main basis for success in service is renunciation and tapasya. A renunciate and a tapaswi means one who is always lost in love for the Father, one who is merged in the Ocean of Love, knowledge, bliss, happiness and peace. Only such a soul can be called a tapaswi. Such renunciate and tapaswi children will always make their time, thoughts, relationships and connections successful and become embodiments of success.
